

THIS WEEK AT LORNSHILL 08/11/24

SENIOR PHASE ASSESSMENTS 1

This week saw our first senior phase assessment window begin for S4-6 students. We encourage all students and families to prepare thoroughly for these and give it their best shot, but please remember that these are a chance for everyone to get feedback about their learning and how to succeed in the weeks and months ahead.

"FUTURE ASSET" COMPETITION

We have 10 S3 girls who are currently studying Business Management, competing in the Future Asset Competition this year. This will be Lornshill's first time entering this competition the girls have been working with their competition coach to create a presentation pitch and record a video about a company with great investment potential. We wish the girls the best of luck in the competition!

AUTHOR VISIT

It was fabulous to welcome Scottish author Graeme Armstrong into school to speak to our S3s about the challenges of youth, peer pressure and gang crime.

His award winning book is The Young Team and is definitely worth a read.

P7 TRANSITION VISITS

Transition visits for current P7s from our cluster schools have started and we are delighted to get this underway. These will occur for all cluster schools over the next 3-4 weeks.

SCHOOL OF DANCE

This week saw our School of Dance students competing strongly in Larbert's annual dance competition. Our team is going from strength to strength and improving all the time. The effort, talent and teamwork on show was amazing to see! Well done all!

He has an impressive background in running and cycling so will be bringing those skills to Lornshill! Craig will deliver within PE, and is keen to expand to other areas of the school. If you would like to get involved he will be happy to have a chat or email craig@felscotland.org

Well done to everyone who took part in our Step Count Challenge over the holidays! We hope you had fun exploring your local areas as well as walking more in new places.
