

THIS WEEK AT LORNSHILL 15/11/24

CAREERS EVENING

We hosted our careers evening on Wednesday and would like to thank the 40+ employers and organisations who supported Lornshill Academy students. It was great to see so many young people and their families attend this event and engage with so many local groups.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

We marked Remembrance Day on Monday with a school wide minute silence. Additionally, our library and Social Subjects held separate events to allow students to engage with the themes of Remembrance.

YOUNG PATHFINDERS SUCCESS

As part of the 'Young Pathfinders Programme', our team of Lexi, Ezmae and Alex competed against other schools at Stirling University to win 'Scotland's International Environmental Centre, Young Pathfinders, Enterprise Award'. Well done!

OI GLASS VISIT

A group of our students had the opportunity to visit OI Glass in Alloa this week. This was for a Girls in Engineering site visit.

From identifying hazards to building towers, they got a great intro to glass production and site safety. Thank you to all at OI Glass for hosting the group.

PERIOD WARRIORS DONATION

Our Period Warriors team were delighted to secure a substantial donation from Tesco. This donation has allowed them to help ensure additional items are now available for those needing to access period related products.

Thanks Tesco for your generosity!

Reading Schools Newsletter

I am delighted to inform you that Lornshill has been awarded Silver Reading Schools accreditation. A big well done to our Reading Leaders for all the reading promotion work they do and, of course, to all of our enthusiastic readers.

We're aiming for Gold Reading Schools accreditation this year, which will see pupils engage more with our wider community around reading. We would welcome a parent member to our Reading Leadership Group. Please email school if you are interested.

Celebrating Books & Reading

We celebrated National Poetry Day 2024 with a poetry writing competition on this year's theme of counting. Matthew was the S1 winner with his poem 'The Expensive Guitar, and Izzi was the S2 winner with her poem 'Speaking'. Congratulations also to Robbie, Haryss and Martha whose poems were highly commended.

Reader of the Month

Every month the English Department selects a Reader of the Month. Congratulations to Amy in S1 who was named September's Reader of the Month, and to Zach in S2 who was October's Reader of the Month.

Reading Achievements

Congratulations to Isla & Zach who are the first two pupils to receive an Empathy Champion badge this year, for reading and reviewing 3 empathy boosting books. You can read their reviews on Lornshill Rated Reads. They're both reading superstars!

Lornshill Rated Reads

All our staff and pupil recommendations for teen books can be browsed online at:
