

THIS WEEK AT LORNSHILL 28/02/25

BOOKBUG VOLUNTEERING

This week, some of our Reading Leaders participated in a Bookbug session at Alloa Library for the first time.

Sophie & Lexie did a great job reading stories to the young children and we are very proud of their work.

"FUTURE ASSETS" SUCCESS

Lornshill Academy participated in the Future Asset competition for the first time this year and we are delighted to announce, that despite not making the final 4, both groups of S3 girls, were awarded 'highly commended' certificates for their work. The girls had to research and analyse a company and present a compelling case for long-term investment. We are very proud of their efforts.

FOOTBALL UPDATES

There was a big win for our U16 boys against Larbert High School in the Scottish Shield. In a tightly fought match, our boys ended up coming away with the win on penalties. They are now through to the Quarter Finals.

Our S3/4 girls football team got some good results at the regional Spar tournament and we were impressed with the effort provided.
