

THIS WEEK AT LORNSHILL 25/04/25

S4/5/6 LEAVERS

This time of year sees our S6 students get ready to make their next steps into the world, along with some of our S4s and S5s. We wish everyone the very best of luck and urge them to keep in touch and let us know how they are getting on!

SCHOOL READER OF THE MONTH

We continue to be impressed by the amount of students reading for enjoyment. Huge congratulations to Jessica in S2 who was named as Reader of the Month for March.

SPRING ANIME CLUB

Massive well done to Paige who won the Spring Anime club competition #OnePiece.

Judges were super impressed with her entry and we wish her and our other seniors best of luck in their upcoming exams.

STAFF CAR PARK USE

Before the Easter holidays, we have had multiple issues with our staff car park being extremely busy, leading to a higher potential of accidents and delays for those who are meant to be using it.

Families who are dropping off or picking off students should only be using the designated drop off zone on Tullibody Road. We appreciate your support in helping to resolve this issue.

Easter 2025

Bike Maintenance and Cycle Skills

The year so far has seen great work from several groups working on both bike maintenance and general cycle skills and rides. 2 Personal Development classes are near completion of the SQA Bike Maintenance Award. Another group have worked on bike skills and delivered an activity to the group - a great way to enhance their learning and confidence.

There have also been multiple lunch pop-ups with good turnouts to enjoy some fun on bikes and skateboard!

News

Wednesday's mountain bikers have made great progress in developing their skills and exploring all the paths and trails local to Lornshill - there are lots of hidden gems! We're hoping to put together a little map so other children can take advantage of them as well.

Feedback

As always, feedback is much appreciated in any form! Every quote, survey, comment or case study is valuable to us. Please get in touch with any thoughts on delivery so far this year at schools@felscotland.org
