

THIS WEEK AT LORNSHILL 21/06/24

CLACKS PARTNERSHIP EVENT

Thank you to senior students Grace and Sam for playing at the Clacks Partnership Event this week. Their playing was much appreciated by everyone who attended – tremendous talent!

REFUGEE FESTIVAL 2024

Melissa, our CLD worker, was out earlier this week with a group of students at the Scottish Refugee Festival. This event celebrated the resilience of our refugee communities and involved lots of art, music and dancing.

BEAT THE SUMMER SLIDE

Mrs Robertson, our librarian, would like to pass on her thanks to the family members, students and Reading Leaders who attended our Beat the Summer Slide drop in event. They enjoyed the book chat, issued books for the holidays and signed up some new public library members.

DANCE SHOW SUCCESS

Well done to all students who took part in our "Rhythm of the Night" dance show. It was an incredible display of talent and hard work from everyone involved and we are very proud of their talent and hard work. Huge thanks also go out to Miss Arbuckle for pulling this together.

REWARDS EVENT

We are delighted to share that yesterday's Rewards Event for students who regularly met the ABOUT standards was a massive success.

Students were treated to concerts featuring Saint Phnx and Rachelle Rhienne, as well as funfair rides, games and inflatables. We hope to see an even bigger number of students invited along to our Term 1 event next session.

END OF TERM

The academic session for 2023-24 ends on Friday the 28th June 2024.

The morning timetable will run as normal with a slightly earlier lunch at 12.15pm with buses expected between 12.30pm & 12.45pm.

Reading Schools Newsletter

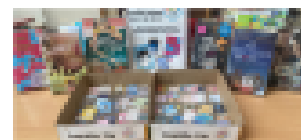

The Reading Leadership Group had a party to say farewell to our fantastic Senior Reading Leader Keeley and to wish her the best of luck in her exams and for the future. She leaves big shoes to fill and her input and support will be sorely missed by all.

We hope to submit our evidence for Silver Reading Schools accreditation by the Summer hols. We would welcome a parent member to our Reading Leadership Group. Please email school if you are interested. Below are some of the latest activities we have enjoyed.

Celebrating Books & Reading

Spring term we celebrated World Book Day by gifting the £1 books to pupils and held our first ever Big Booky Bake Off which was great fun. Sophie, Kayla & Zac won with their Alice in Wonderland inspired cake. Summer term we celebrated Empathy Day with Empathy Book Bingo. Super Swiftie Zara won the Swift or Shakespeare competition & pupils got a free empathy quote keyring (made by our Reading Leaders) with every empathy boosting book borrowed.

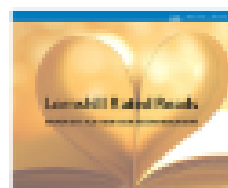

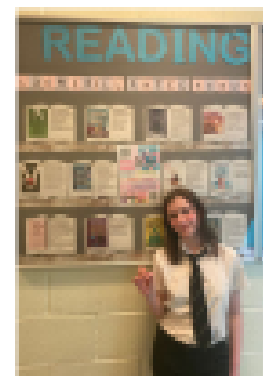

Author Visits

Members of our Reading Leadership Group took part in an online author event, run by the Scottish Book Trust, which brought together Reading Leaders from High Schools across Scotland. The talk from popular author Brian Conaghan was inspirational and our Reading Leaders made the most of their opportunity to be in conversation with him by posing some great questions.

Reading Achievements

Congratulations to Sophie, who is our second pupil to gain a Review Star for recommending 3 books on Lornishill Rated Reads. All our staff and pupil recommendations for teen books can be browsed online at: <https://sites.google.com/el.glow.scot/lornishill-rated-reads>. Parents can also recommend books they think our pupils should read using the QR code on the right.

Beat the Summer Slide Event

Thank you to everyone who attended this event, aimed at beating the reading skills loss that occurs over the Summer. We enjoyed seeing books being borrowed to share this Summer and the informal book chats between parents, staff and pupils. We are grateful to Alloa Library staff for attending, opening public library memberships, issuing BorrowBox logins and promoting their Summer Reading Challenge. Pupils looking for a new book to read over the hols can visit their local public library, or borrow eBooks and eAudioBooks at any time through the VLEBooks and BorrowBox files in their Glow accounts.
